Arbitration Experience

Véronique is often involved in complex cross-border multi-jurisdictional litigation and arbitration matters.

She has extensive experience in the following legal practice areas:

- Corporate-commercial law - Véronique has a strong track record in advising and representing both national and multinational clients on commercial disputes, working closely with them to achieve a swift and effective conclusion. She handles the full range of corporate law litigation including post-acquisition claims, directors' liability, shareholders disputes etc. as well as the full range of commercial law litigation relating e.g. to commercial contracts, liability, distribution, and unfair competition.
- Banking and finance litigation, including complex banking litigation, securities litigation and project finance related legal proceedings, in which we act for both lenders and borrowers.
- Restructurings and insolvency proceedings (for instance seizing property and assets, and enforcement of security interests) - Véronique represents creditors and/or interested buyers in high-profile restructuring and insolvency cases.
- Intellectual Property litigation - Véronique advises on all the stages in the life-cycle of intellectual property, from protection to transfer, via strategy, management, marketing and enforcing.
- Privacy law - Véronique advises companies on all privacy-related disputes.

(International) Arbitration - Véronique combines both proven expertise and knowledge to guide her clients through complex arbitration. She has experience in proceedings under the rules of most of the preeminent domestic and international arbitration institutes such as ICC. She has successfully handled many highly sensitive and complex arbitration matters.
