

Last Name, First name	Savov, Vasil
Address	2, rue Jean-Jacques Fried, F-67000, Strasbourg
Telephone	+352 661 59 48 58
Fax
Email	savov@teresclaims.com
Nationality/ Date of Birth	French and Bulgarian / 13 August 1983

Educational/ Current position / Professional Experience

Education: LL.M European Litigation, University of Luxembourg (2008)
Common law diploma, University College Cork, Ireland (2007)
Master in private law, Robert Schuman University of Strasbourg (2007)

Current positions: Managing Director at Teresclaims

Past positions: Executive Director (Luxembourg) and Partner at CDC Cartel Damage Claims, Visiting lecturer at Science Po, Corporate Counsel, Member of the European Commission Legal Service, Clerk of a judge at the EU General Court, international lawyer

Vasil also acted as counsel:

- in several landmark cases at the national and EU level where the issue on the arbitrability of claims resulting from EU antitrust infringements has been dealt with;
- in contractual liability cases subject to an arbitration clause under Article 272 TFEU.

Arbitration Experience

Vasil has extensive experience as an intermediary manager on behalf of parties involved in high-profile international arbitration cases in Europe, Asia and the Middle East.

Publications and Speaking Engagements

“Aggregation of antitrust claims by way of assignment as an effective alternative to obtain compensation for damages suffered”, The intensification of damages actions as a result of antitrust infringements, pp 239-246, IRJS, 2016 (with C. Prieto, M. Béhar-Touchais, D. Bosco)

“Temporal application of provisions on limitation and qualification of harm that implement the EU Damages Directive into national law” Lexology, 2020 (with N. Espelta and J. Siska)

“Towards civil liability of subsidiaries non-addressees of cartel decisions?”, Lexology, 2020 (with J. Cousin and J. Siska)

“Choice of forum delicti in EU-wide cartel damages cases : Does Art. 7(2) Brussels I bis determine territorial jurisdiction within the EU Member States”, Bulletin e-competitions, 2020 (with J. Siska and J. Suderow)

(Full list on request)

Languages

English (fluent)
French (fluent)
Bulgarian (fluent)
Russian (working knowledge)